

To the KINGS Most Excellent MAJESTY.

The Humble Petition of the Grand Jury of the Hundred of Oswalston for the County of Middlesex, attending the Court of Kings Bench at Westminster, for this Term of St. Michael, 1680.

Sheweth,

THat from the deepest sense of our duty, we most humbly present our grateful acknowledgment of your Majesties Gracious Government, Clemency and Providence over us and all your Loyal Subjects; and more especially, for that your Majesty hath in your profound Wisdom, thought fit in this time of Eminent Danger, to Assemble your High Court of Parliament; To provide for the safety of your Sacred Person, the Protestant Religion, and the Laws of the Land; Which have been the Objects of the Malice of Popish Plotters: As it hath manifestly appeared upon the Legal Tryals of divers Conspirators against the same.

Wherefore, we your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do most humbly beseech your Royal Majesty will be graciously pleased to have Regard to the humble advice of your great Council of Parliaments; for the safety of your Royal Person, the Preservation of the Protestant Religion and the Laws, the Quieting and Uniting the minds of all your Good Subjects, and the Peace of your whole Kingdom: All which we most humbly Submit to your Majesties great Wisdom and Goodness.

And your Petitioners (as in duty bound) shall ever Pray for your Majesties long Life and Prosperous Reign.
